About the market

Billycart Markets is an exclusively Australian handmade market with all products made by local artisans and designers {the only exclusively handmade market in Sydney}. Stallholders cater for children aged 0 - 12 years and take pride in producing high quality creations for little people. You can expect a boutique shopping experience and a range of one-off original handmade pieces... everything is as unique as it's maker.

About the creator

Melanie Grace is a 30 something mother to three... Brooke {7}, Jade {6} and Billy {1}. Her passions include spending quality time with her family, enjoying the simple things in life and appreciating the art of handmade... an ethos that transcends both her family and business life. As a mother of three, Melanie grew tired of purchasing unoriginal, mass produced items that only provided her family with minutes of entertainment... Billycart Markets aims to provide gorgeous, unique items that will provide a lifetime of pleasure.

In her own words..

"I am no do-gooder on rampage to make the world a better place - just my little piece of the world. I do believe that my kids should get a sense of worth and value in today's world. Everything is so fast paced, busy and rushed - what happened to good old fashioned family time, crafts and enjoying the simple things in life?" Melanie Grace
