

on the web

STUCK FOR IDEAS

Make every day fun filled by heading to the events page on our website. There you can find out what's going on in your neck of the woods, including markets, festivals, workshops, holiday entertainment and more. Now you won't have any excuse to be sitting around with nothing to do. Pop by the Billycart Markets at Narrabeen, NSW, for beautifully handcrafted products for children. Visit mychildmagazine.com.au and click the events button on the home page for more info. Lulu Dolls by Roxy Creations available at the market for $12 each

ARE YOU A FAN?

Stay in touch and keep in the loop on Facebook. Each day our deputy editor, Jessie, is online chatting with our friends. Join in the fun and have your say, and you could be one of seven lucky followers to receive an adorable Bambino Mio Intro Kit, $89.90 from Ecobabe, which contains three modern cloth nappies, one cover, 50 liners and a nappy cleanser. Simply head to facebook.com/mychildmagazine, tag yourself in the Bambino Mio picture and follow the link to enter. To see more great products take a look at ecobabe.com.au. For terms and conditions, visit mychildmagazine.com.au.

SHOPPING HEAVEN

My Child's shopping directory makes purchasing products so much easier – especially if you're into online shopping. Hop onto mychildmagazine.com.au and hit the Shopping tab on the options bar for our selection of stores selling hot brands for a range of budgets.

GIVEAWAYS GALORE

Can't wait for the next issue of My Child? Get all the latest in news, fashion and more with our eNewsletter. In our December and January issues we have great giveaways from Eeni Meeni Miini Moh, Moose Toys, Smallprint, Alex & Charli, Cocoon, DinoSawUs and An Angel At My Table. Don't miss out! Subscribe at mychildmagazine.com.au. Alex & Charli Bunny Print Bodysuit, $34.95, available from alexandcharli.com

ON TREND

This summer, it seems colour is everywhere. This look has emerged during recent runway shows, from the likes of Yves Saint Laurent and Romance Was Born.

The best thing about this trend is it's easy to adapt into your tot's apparel. It's all about mixing and matching graphic prints to create an interesting ensemble in a bright colour palette, and channelling the 1960s mod inside all of us. Head to our My Style blog at mychildmagazine.com.au for links to more groovy products.

- Get colourful in this super quirky, smock-style Books & Elephants Dress (below). Designed and handmade in North Carolina, US, by Joey & Aleethea, it comes in sizes to fit babies and kids up to five years of age and is priced at $55. Pick up yours from etsy.com/shop/joeyandaleethea.
- Not only is clothing more colourful this summer, interior design is louder and more vibrant. Reflect the 1960s influence with pop art from nootles.com.au. Pop Dog (left), $245, is especially cute.

- It's a rattle, teething ring and soft toy all in one. OB Designs has a whole range of Dingarings (top left) for your bub. Tony Tree Frog is a new addition to this quirky family. Get him for $19.95 at obdesigns.net.
- Add a maritime flavour to your bub's wardrobe with the Baby Pirate Stripe Romper in red by Rittenhouse (top right). This bright, fun piece is made from 100 percent cotton, comes in sizes 3M to 24M and is priced at $39.95. Take a look at kidostore.com for more cool summer looks.

COMPILED BY HEATHER NICIAK. ALL PRICES ARE APPROXIMATE